THE TANK LIBRARY.

The Tank Library (see Collections, Vol. V., p. 172) numbers 4,812 volumes and 374 pamphlets. Having been originally the property of a clergyman, it consists in great part, of course, of theological works, chiefly in the Dutch language. Besides these, however, it contains a large number of historical works, books of travel and works in other departments of literature. Of this last class there may be mentioned the works of Calvin in Latin, in nine large folio volumes; of Linnaeus in Dutch, in thirty-seven octavo volumes; of Bernoulli, in four volumes, with two more containing works by Bernoulli and Leibnitz; a large collection of the ancient classics, and several valuable treatises on Jurisprudence. As the former proprietor of the Library, Mr. Van der Meulen, was born in 1768, and ordained in the ministry in 1792, it is not to be wondered at that the great majority of the books are earlier than the present century.

Of the strictly historical works, the largest part is devoted to the history of the Netherlands; these embrace many works of the first order as authorities. There are also many treatises on Ecclesiastical History, some of them of the highest reputation in their day; and quite a number of biographies, and histories of other countries of Europe. Next to the history of the Netherlands, the most extensive and valuable class is that of books of travel, especially of the seventeenth century, the time when Holland was at the height of political and commercial greatness. It is not thought desirable to print the entire catalogue of this Library; but some of the most important of the historical works will be briefly described, under three heads—Dutch History, Books of Travel and General History, with a special section describing the maps. It should be remarked that a large proportion of the volumes described are vellum-bound folios, very copiously illustrated with maps and plates. The numbers are those of the special manuscript catalogue of the Tank Library.

HISTORY AND GEOGRAPHY OF THE NETHERLANDS.

11. FRANÇOIS HALMA. Tooneel der Vereenigde Nederlanden. (Theatre of the United Netherlands.) Leeuwaarden, 1725. 2 Vol. Fol. vel. A geographical and historical dictionary of the United States of the Netherlands, with numerous maps and portraits.

31. SIMON VAN LEEUWEN. Batavia Illustrata, oite Verhandelinge van den Oorspronk, Voortgank, Zeden, Eere, Staat en Godtsdienst van Oud Batavien. (Batavia Illustrated, or Discourses upon the Origin, Progress, Manners, Reputation, State and Worship of Ancient Batavia.) Gravenhage (the Hague), 1685. Fol. vel., pp. 1520. A description of the several provinces of Holland, with their history and detailed accounts of all the noble families and eminent men.

429. JAN WAGENAAR. Vaderlandsche Historie, vervattende de Geschiedenissen der nu Vereenigde Nederlanden, inzonderheid die van Holland. (National History, comprising the History of the now United Netherlands, especially Holland.) 1749–59. 21 Vol. 8vo. This is the standard history of the Netherlands, and is one of Mr. Motley's principal authorities. The copy above described appears to be the original edition, and does not give the author's name. Another copy, unbound, with author's name, was published 1790–96; it appears to be an exact reprint, but contains a large number of appendices and additional notes; and has also a continuation "to the present time." Of this edition, there are 35 volumes, and three volumes are missing. Both editions have numerous portraits and other illustrations.

1223. JACOBUS KOK. Vaderlandsch Woordenbok (Dictionary of the Fatherland.) Amsterdam, 1782–92. This is the principal cyclopædia of the history and geography of the Netherlands, and is occasionally cited by Mr. Motley. The copy in the Library is unbound and incomplete, comprising through Vol. 28 (letter T), two of the earlier volumes being missing. It has a few maps, portraits and other illustrations.

166. L. G. F. KERROUX. Abrege de l'Histoire de Hollande et des Provinces Unies. Leyde, 1778. 8vo. 2 Vols. in one. It reaches to the year 1660.

24. PETER BOR (Christiaenszoon). Oorsprongk, Begin en Vervolgh der Nederlandsche Oorlogen. (Origin, Beginning and Progress of the Wars of the Netherlands.) Amsterdam, 1684. 4 Vol. Fol. vel. This is Mr. Motley's principal auauthority for the period which it covers—from 1555 to 1600; he says of it, that its "enormous but indispensable folios form a complete magazine of contemporary state papers, letters and pamphlets, blended together in mass, and connected by a chain of artless but earnest narration." The author was himself a contemporary (born at Utrecht, 1559, died 1635), and his historical labors were adopted and subsidized, first by the government of Utrecht, then by that of Holland and West Friesland. This book has therefore an official character. Each volume is illustrated with fine portraits and other plates.

32. Emanuel van Meteren. Historie der Nederlandscher ende haerder Naburen Oorlogen ende Geschiedenissen. (History of the Wars and Events of the Netherlands and their Neighbors.) Graven Hage, 1635. Fol. vel., pp. 701. This is, next to Bor, perhaps the most frequently cited of all Mr. Motley's authorities; it begins with the foundation of the ducal line of Burgundy, in 1364, and continues to the year 1612. Meteren was born at Antwerp, 1535, and died at London, 1612; he is occasionally called the "Antwerp chronicler." It contains a large number of portraits.

Joannes Meursius. Historica: Danica pariter et Belgica. 1. Historia Danica ad Canutum VI (1448). 2. Historica Danica ad Christianum II (1523). 3. Guilielmus Auriacus (William of Orange). 4. Ferdinandus Albanus. 5. Induciarum Historia. Amstelodami, 1638. Fol. vel. Meursius was born in Holland, 1579, but spent most of his life in Denmark, where he was historiographer to King Christian IV. He was a very voluminous writer, but this volume contains all his historical writings; it is occasionally referred to by Mr. Motley. It is adorned with a portrait of the author.

96. Everhard Van Reyd. Historie der Nederlandtscher Oorlogen, (History of the Wars of the Netherlands), from 1566 to 1601; added to this is, Johan Van den Sande. Nederlandtsche Historie (History of the Netherlands.) A continuation of the above, to the year 1641. Leeuwarden, 1650, fol. with portraits. Van Reyd was councillor of William Lewis of Nassau, Stadtholder of Friesland; his work is written "with great accuracy and fidelity." Van den Sande was a distinguished jurist, for thirty years a member of the provincial council of Friesland.

61. Jean Le Clerc. Geschiedenissen der Vereenigde Nederlanden (History of the United Netherlands), translated from the French. Fol. vell. 4 vol. The first three volumes, published at Amsterdam, 1730, bring the history of the republic down to the Peace of Utrecht, 1713; the fourth volume, by Pieter Le Clerc, published 1753, reaches to the year 1751. It contains numerous maps, portraits, etc.

3. Acta Synodi Nationalis in nomine Domini nostri Jesu Christi.... Dordrechti habitae, Anno 1618 & 1619. Dordrechti, 1620. Fol. vel., pp. 323.

55. Joannes Uytenbogaert. Kerckeliicke Historie (Ecclesiastical History.) Rotterdam. Fol. vel., pp. 1214. Principally devoted to the theological dissensions which led to the Synod of Dort and the death of Olden-Barneveldt in 1619. Uytenbogaert was himself a leader in the Arminian party, and went into exile at Paris, whence he returned after the death of Prince Maurice, 1626.

51. Jacobus Triglandius. Kerckelycke Geschiedenissen (Ecclesiastical History.) Leyden 1650. Fol. vel., pp. 1861. This is in the main a reply to Uytenbogaert's History. The author was Professor at Leyden, and grandfather of the distinguished scholar, Jacob Trigland.

52. Wilhelm en Maurits van Nassau, haer Leven en Bedryf. (William and Maurice of Nassau, their Lives and Deeds). Amsterdam, 1651. Fol. vel. The life of William occupies only about one-fifth of the volume. There are portraits, plans and other plates.

64. Isaak Commelyn. Frederick Hendrik van Nassauw, Prince van Orangien; zyn Leven en Bedryf. (Frederick Henry of Nassau, Prince of Orange, his Life and Deeds. Amsterdam. 1651. Fol. vel. 2 Vols. in one.

253. Arnoldus Montanus. Het Leven, Bedryf en Oorlogs-Daaden van Wilhem den Derden, Koning van Engeland, etc. (The Life, Deed sand Military Exploits of William III., King of England, etc.) Amsterdam, 1703. 3 Vols. 16mo. vel. With portrait and illustrations.

376. Het Leven en Bedryf van Wilhem de Darde, Koning van Groot-Brittanie, etc. (The Life and Deeds of William III., King of Great Britain, etc.) Amsterdam, 1694. 4to. vel. 2 Vols. With plates.

397. L. Rotgans. Wilhem de Derde, door Gods genade, Koning van Engeland, Schotland, Vrankryk en Ierland, Beschermer des Geloofs, enz. In Heldendicht beschreven. (William III., by God's grace King of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Defender of the Faith, etc. Written in heroic verse.) Utrecht, 1698. 2 Vols. in one. 4to.

366. François Halma. Het Leven van zyne Hoogheit Johan Willem Friso, Prinse van Oranje en Nassau, etc. (The Life of His Highness, John William Friso, Prince of Orange and Nassau, etc.) Amsterdam, 1716. 16mo. 2 Vols. John William, Stadtholder of Friesland, was cousin of William III., and ancestor of the present royal family of Holland.

1160. Cornelis Van der Aa. Geschiedenis van het Leven, Character en Lotgevallen van wijlen Willem den Vijfden, Prinse van Oranje en Nassau. (History of the Life, Character and Fortunes of the late William V, Prince of Orange and Nassau.) Amsterdam, 1806. 5 Vols. 8vo.

60. Gerard Brandt. Het Leven en Bedryf van den Heere Michiel de Ruiter. (Life and Deeds of Lord Michael de Ruiter.) Amsterdam, 1867. Fol. vel., pp. 1086. This is the standard authority for the life of this celebrated man. The author, a clergyman of Amsterdam (d. 1685), was the most distinguished of a distinguished family.

1104. Nieuwe Nederlandsche Jaarboeken. (New Year-Book of the Netherlands.) 129 Volumes, covering the years from 1747 to 1795.

56. Historia Ultrajectina (History of Utrecht), containing: 1. Chronica Johannis de Beka. Beka was a canon of Utrecht in the latter part of the fourteenth century; his chronicle ends A. D. 1393. An appendix by Petrus Suffridus brings it down to 1529. 2. Wilhelmi Hedae Historia Episcoporum Ultrajectensium. Heda was likewise a canon of Utrecht, and died 1541. His history is much fuller than Beka's, and contains a large number of documents; it reaches the year 1523, and is continued by Petrus Suffridus to 1573. Both works are chief authorities for the early history of Holland, and are enriched with copious notes by Arnoldus Buchelius.

ATLASES.

1913. Nieuwe Atlas. (New Atlas.) Amsterdam. 2 Vols. Fol., about 1739. The first vol. contains 52 maps of the western countries of Europe; the second, 58 maps, embracing the rest of the world. They are of excellent execution, quite minute, giving the physical features and the principal roads; coats of arms are given for each state and province. There are four maps devoted to the seat of war (the War of the Spanish Succession) in Spain.

1908. Atlas. (No title page.) Folio. About 1639. Containing 114 double-page maps, including some interesting ones of the American colonies. The execution is inferior to that of the last.

1915. Atlas Major. Amsterdam. 4 Vols. Folio. About 1720.
Vol. I. The World, etc.; Spain, Portugal, France, Italy. 90 maps.

Vol. II. Germany and eastern Europe.
Vol. III. England and the Netherlands.
Vol. IV. Northern Europe, Asia, Africa, America, etc.

The maps are generally rather coarsely executed, but vary in style, as well as in age—some of them appear to date from the seventeenth century.

ATLAS des Roiaumes de Galicie et de Lodomerie. Vienna, 1790. Unbound, and not numbered. Containing eleven large Maps, very minute and finely executed, of Austria's share in the plunder of Poland.

1906. ATLAS of Spain and Portugal, consisting of 54 maps, rather coarsely executed, but very minute, giving roads and physical features.

TOPOGRAPHISCH-MILITAIRISCHE CHARTE VON DEUTSCHLAND. Weimar. Verlag des Geographischen Instituts. 1812. This splendid Atlas consists of 213 sections, but in most cases two sections are contained on the same sheet, so that the whole number of maps is 103. These are not bound, but carefully tied up in groups, and laid in two huge portfolios. Their execution is of the highest character, and all the physical features of the country are given with the greatest precision. There is an index in two thin octavos.

1928. Atlas of the Netherlands. Containing 30 very minute and well executed maps of all the provinces of Holland, and 41 plans of cities.

1914. Atlas Methodique. Composé pour l'usage de son altesse serenisseme Monseigneur le Prince d'Orange et de Nassau. Par Jean Palairet. Londres, 1755. Fol. This atlas, prepared for the instruction of the young Prince of Orange, contains 52 maps. The plan may be illustrated by No's 16–18, England. No. 18 is a complete detailed map; No. 16 is a large outline map of the counties, while No. 17 contains the principal towns, rivers, etc.

There are several other atlases of inferior value, and innumerable maps, plans and charts scattered through the books of history and geography.
